THE

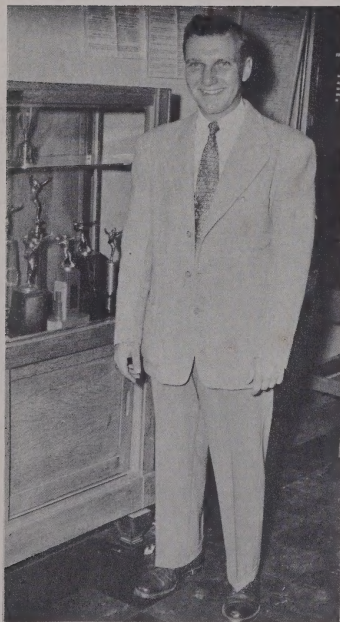

CENTURY

Dedication

The picture is made up of many things: a beautiful day, excitement, people, colors -- but most of all students. Students with a spirit of friendliness, good sportsmanship, and a will to win a clean battle. We, the class of 1954, take great pride in dedicating the "Century" to the two men who have done so much in creating this picture.

Mr. Ruschmann began instilling these ideas in us four years ago. He gave up many of his evenings to work, sympathize, encourage, and mold us the way a great conductor does an orchestra. To him we owe a brightness of eye and a good feeling of learning to play hard and break clean.

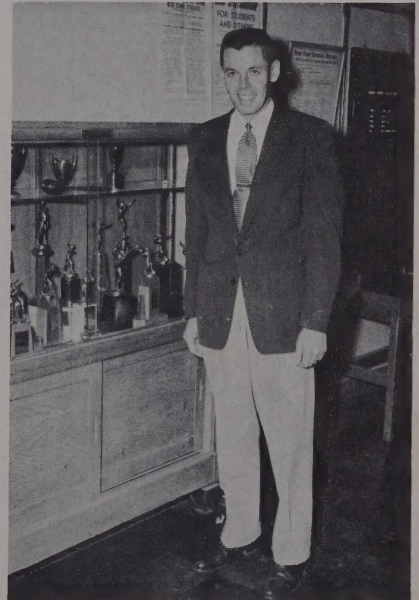

Dedication

Then Mr. Brewer took over the smooth machine. Now our school life was punctuated with days of victory, and enjoyment. A loss merely taught us the additional pleasure of losing gracefully and remaining standing, to try again.

For both of them, our coaches, our men of honor: we will strive to be people of honor. Your memory, and your example will live with us.

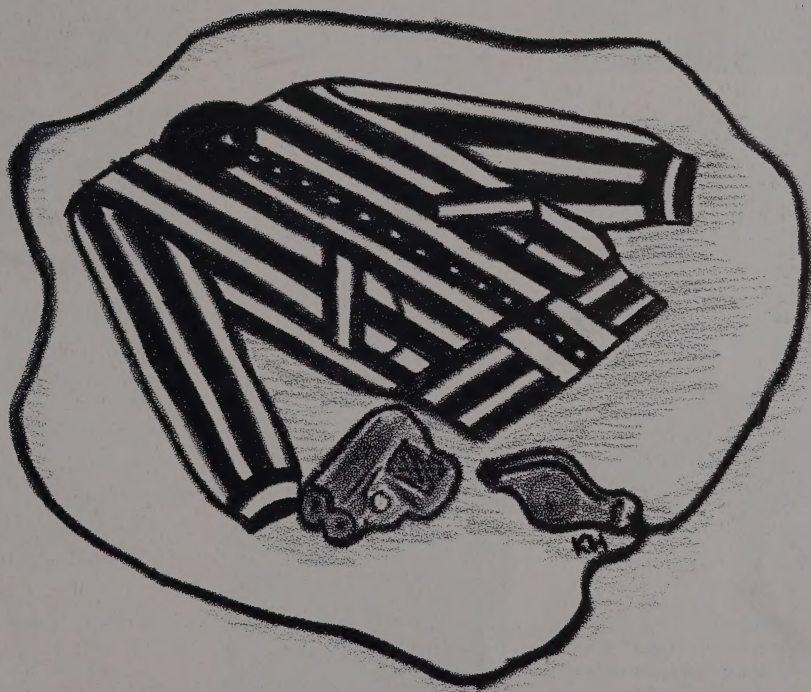

Foreword

Within the pages of this book, we would like to share with you our memories. We hope you will remember, as we shall, the sports, the dances, and the other activities which have made our Senior year so wonderful.

THE LITTLE LEAGUERS

In 1941 we, Little Leaguers, got together and formed a little league. We learned to play and work together, in order to have a better team.

As the season progressed our umpire, Mrs. Fox, gave us a piece of candy everytime we had our spelling words correct.

In 1947 we were the proudest Little Leaguers in the little stadium. We wore badges and acted as umpires, called safeties.

Then we went over to the Big Stadium; and we were the littlest leaguers around, which made us very unhappy.

In 1949 the two little leagues became a big league. We had four bases to run together.

A big event occurred in 1950 as we slid to first base. We were no longer the littlest leaguers in the stadium, and were getting places fast. As one of our projects we had a paper drive, which covered the surrounding field.

When we reached second base in 1951, we sold Christmas Cards to the fans in our area.

Someone threw a fast one, and before we realized it we had reached third base. Here we had milk sales, magazine sales, and roller skating parties for all of the leaguers. It was here also that we gave the Junior-Senior Prom "Rhapsody in Blue" at the Highland Country Club.

From third base we slid to home plate, our goal. Now we were Big Leaguers. All of the Leaguers of our team had fun this year, planning and going to the Senior Dances, selling birthday and calendars, and working on the Annual with our umpires, Mrs. Greenwald, Mrs. Martin, and Mr. Lamper.

The season being over, on the night of June 10, the Big League broke up, heading for places unknown.

Last Will and Testament

We, The Senior Class of Kelloggsville High School located in the South-West Section of Home Acres unconscious of the fact we are still here, do hereby get rid of, throw out, or give away, the following things--

ARTICLE I

To the Juniors, we leave the worries of providing an annual and planning Senior Dances.

To the Sophomores, we leave our knowledge of the fact that the last two years are the best.

To the Freshmen, we leave our knack of having everyone think that we are big wheels.

To the Eighth Graders, we leave our sense of direction. They will need it to get from class to class next year.

To the Seventh Graders, we leave the hope of a new gymnasium so that they can have their games at home.

ARTICLE II

To Mr. Wilkins, we leave a knife that shoots and a gun that stabs.

To Mrs. Martin, we leave "Au revoir is to an end, we are up a creek, around a bend."

To Miss Muir, we leave a bigger wastebasket so that she will not hurt herself if she falls in.

To Mrs. Dawson, we leave the record "You, You, You" for her class-ical record collection.

To Mr. Lamper, we leave a position on THE PRESS so the COMET competition can be continued.

To Mrs. Geiger, we leave a crew of repairmen for her typewriters.

To Mr. Buschmann, we leave an extra large bag of potato chips to keep him supplied.

To Mr. Gilder, we leave a new frog that croaks.

To Mr. Brumels, we leave a westerly wind blowing southward.

To Mr. Fry, we leave a portable excuse writer.

To Mr. Thumm, we leave four fingers, now all he needs is a palm.

To Mrs. Greenwald, we leave, isn't that enough?

To Mr. Rankin, we leave a judge's position in the Miss America Beauty Contest.

To Mr. Beld, we leave an undiscovered Martian in his flying saucer so that he will have at least one scoop for his Comet.

To Mr. Brewer, we leave a tape recorder so that he can catch all of his sons' clever sayings.

To Mr. Andersen, we leave a walkie-talkie to communicate between school and shop.

To Mr. Hunnes, we leave another trip to France, we shall furnish the rowboat.

To Mr. Formsma, we hate to leave you.

To Miss Azzarello, we leave some extra hairnets for her cocoa classes.

To Mrs. Cross, we leave, but we wish we could stay and get to know you better.

To Mrs. Newlon, we leave earplugs for telephoning.

To Mrs. Sprik, we leave our childhood memories.

To Miss Cryslar, we leave Sluggo.

To Mr. Nelson, we leave a bouncing baby girl to match his bouncing baby boy.

To Mrs. Wade, we leave another roomful of seventh grade mischief.

To Mr. Swets, we leave a softer soccer ball, one that will not hurt as much.

Future Tense Nonsense

As I sit here in my own little padded cell of the Rockwell Asylum, my mind wanders back to my high school days at K. H. S. I have kept in contact with Bev Marquedant since she is the matron here. Well, well, she just brought me a newspaper.

Bob Rauser, Bill Ivie, and Roger Tanis have made the front page again. They have developed a supersonic space car and have been making frequent trips to Mars where Dick Voss, Fred Kastner, and Harold Burden are studying human relations with the Martians. By the way, Rita Elder has become the first woman ambassador to a planet. I heard she wanted to go to Pluto, but Chuck Stover got the position there.

Boston Blackie Stewart and Lorelei Lynn Kossen have solved the $1,000 theft from Karen House's Fur Co.

Don Green, noted dentist, and Ron Shippy, one of our leading skin specialists, were awarded certificates of merit by Mayor Joyce Bast the other day.

Almer Dieterman, Dick Palmitier, and Tom Horton have formed a large company known as the Block, Block, and Block Co. They specialize in round, square, and cement blocks.

Cecil Stricklin invented the streamlined Stricklinmobile. His chief manufacturer is Jim Coon, president of Coon Manufacturing Company.

Carroll Leys has a comic-strip in the newspaper now, entitled "Deer John." It was nice of Barb Marks, editor of the Kelloggsville Blatt, to give him the job.

Avonne Davenport has developed smellascope movies. Starring in the first of these, entitled "Fragrant Flowers for Funerals," are Shirley Wolf and Bernard Zylstra. An added attraction is Doug Bosin, starring in his own famous dance, "Ballet of the Lily."

It says here that Joyce Clevenger has made the Rockets Hockey Team whose coach, Ruth Sankey, is doing a fine job with the team. Another important name in the field of sports is Bill Massie, who has come up with an advanced game of marbles.

A new machine that uses atoms for energy is the Romeyn, Vander Laan, Plow and Drag.

Diane Rigney and Daune Boetsma have gone into business together. Daune designs sweaters for the dogs in Diane's Kulture Kennels.

On the society page, I read that a party will be given in honor of Charlene Vander Meer, Connie Wilks, and Roberta Jacobitz, the trio that made famous a song written by Pat Marshall, "Teacher in the Tree Top."

Fred Lesert, rich oil man from Texas, threw a big party at the Larson, Larson night club for those glamorous, lovelies of the stage and screen, Carol Keller, Jackie Osmun, Hope Poeder, and Beverly Dekker. Another important guest will be Agnes Barszewski, of Barszewski Beverages Inc. The chief chef for the evening will be Jim Boots, famous for his tossed salad. Frank Curtice, owner of a chain of grocery stores, is expected to fly in for the evening in his private plane.

Entertainment for the evening will include Marilyn Boorsma's original composition, "Rainbow Over the Ridge," sung by Pam Fleser, accompanied by Barbara Harrington on the tuba.

Ellen Jensen is giving Bell Telephone Co. competition with the Buzz Telephone Co., of which she is the head. Her leading executives are La Vonne Priest, stationed in Pakistan, Shirley Schuiling, in Peru, and Darlene Dykstra, in Indonesia. Ellen is making her telephone service worldwide.

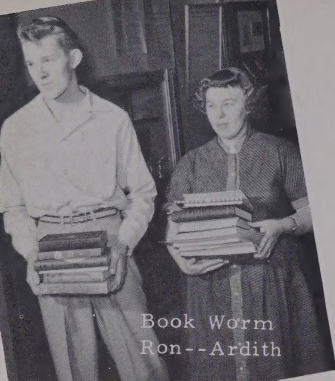

Elma Bruns, a Five-Star General of the WAF'S, is home on leave.

Ruth Thiel of the Thiel Diamond Co. is expecting a shipment of diamonds from Africa. Shirley Young and Dorothy Vande Voren are doing fine as door to door saleswomen. They sell Judy Van Hoven's All Occasion Pots and Pans.

Ardith Jannereth and Cynthia Kuhlman may be seen on television every day at 1:45 on Barb Buikema's soap opera.

In case I didn't mention before Linda Steffes is in the cell next to mine. We get good meals here because Ron Springvloed and Cecil Curtiss work in the kitchen.

Isn't it amazing how many different fields the class of '54' has explored?

FORGET-ME-NOTS

THE CLASS OF 1954

The road we traveled while in school
Was long, and rough, and fun,
But time has caught up with us now.
Our High School days are done.

We've had our share of sports and tests
We realize we face,
An ending to "An Easy Life"
As Juniors take our place.

We all have goals we'll strive to reach,
Our futures to possess;
But we will NEVER ONCE forget---
Our days at K. H. S.

--Ellen Jensen

THE CLASS GRADUATES

As we graduate on this day and year,
With the songs of birds blending in our ear,

We think of the fun we've had in the past,
And of what the future holds in its grasp.

For most of us school life is left behind,
We're now looking toward home and peace of mind.

Were teachers so bad, and lessons so rough;
Or was it fun to say, "This is too tough"?

So we graduate: "Class of 54,"
Most of our friends we'll be seeing no more....

--Jay Vander Laan

Varsity Football

The Rocket's schedule for 1953 included some of the strongest class "B" teams in the state. Tremendous team spirit produced a very creditable record of four wins, two losses, and two ties.

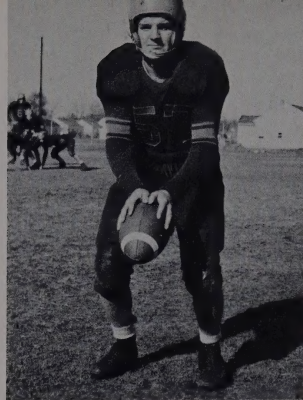

High points of the season included a twelve to six victory over Wayland, the Barkenall Champions; a twelve to twelve Homecoming tie with North Muskegon, who ranked fifth in the state; and a twelve to twelve tie with Godwin, Co-champions of the Grand Valley Conference.

As the team began to master the split T formation, improved blocking was very noticeable. Ten boys ended their careers for K. H. S. and will be missed in 1954.

Second Team

Our Reserve Team had a very good year. We had seven wins and only one loss. All of the boys on the team, along with the coach, worked very hard and long to make this record possible. There was no one outstanding player because everyone on the team was very good. These boys, working together and learning together in the way that they did, showed that they are going to make very good material for the Varsity in the coming year.

They will, without a doubt, keep up the reputation of Kelloggsville for fine sportsmanship.

Freshmen

Twenty boys, under the coaching of Mr. Leonard Wilkins, provided Kelloggsville with the first Freshman football team in the history of the school.

The boys gained much experience and showed great promise for next year's reserve team.

Varsity

Our Basketball Team had a better season this year than in the past few years. Hampered by lack of height and lack of practice space, they won seven games while losing nine. The team lost many games at the foul line. Seven Seniors will graduate, and the team will miss them next year.

The Second Team this year was quite varied as they ranged from six feet three inches in height to five feet one inch. Still they excelled in spirit. The season was one of the most exciting as they played many close games. The boys all fought hard though, and really made a good showing.

Baseball

The 1952 baseball squad enjoyed its most successful season since coach Ruschmann started with the team. Two years of ups and downs were spent until finally the squad rounded into shape. Their record for the season showed eleven games won and two lost. The high-light of the season was winning first place in the first Portland Invitational Tournament. The entire squad was strong on defense and offense. Defensively, captain Bob Noorman pitched the Rockets to ten of their eleven victories while losing only one game. The long hitting of Ron Baldwin cannot be overlooked. The team was successful in defeating both the Grand Valley and Barkenall Champions.

Kelloggsville's track team

"came of age" during the 1953 season.

The Rocket Thinclads were victorious in five of seven dual meets, losing only to Sparta and Godwin by the narrow margin of 2 2/3 points. Competing for the first time in class B, the K-men surprised the Grand Rapids public by finishing a strong third in the regional meet, 10 points ahead of fourth place Godwin. During the course of the season, twelve of fourteen school records were broken. The new marks were as follows: B. Grim-shot put 41'; D. Wilder-pole vault-9' 10"; D. Colegrove-broad jump-19'9"; D. Palmitier-high jump-5' 6 1/2" B. Grim-100 yard dash-10.4 seconds; B. Grim-220 yard dash-23.2 seconds; J. Coon-high hurdles-15.7 seconds; J. Coon-low hurdles-21.2 seconds; T. Haner-mile-4 minutes 55.3 seconds; medley relay-2 minutes 41.8 seconds; 880 relay-1 minute 36.2 seconds; Freshman relay-51.2 seconds.

The Rocket 880 relay team tied with East Grand Rapids for sixth place in the State finals at Ann Arbor. This was the first time Kelloggsville participants had ever placed in a state meet.
